NEW LIFE MASTERS

Gunnar and Marie Sarsten of Richmond Hill, Georgia, came to Halifax last week each needing 3.99 gold points to become Life Masters.

When, with their team-mates Connie and Norm Nasson of Petoskey, Michigan, they won Flight 'C' in the Thursday/Friday Knockouts, they picked up 4.4 gold and reached their goal.

makes us feel good to know that now, no matter what they think of the weather or the roads, they will always have fond memories of Halifax.

Two more locals also crossed the line

today. While advancing with their team-mates, Doug and Carol Hamilton, to the semi-finals in Flight 'C' of the Saturday/Sunday Knockouts, Wade Short of Lower Sackville and Art Donahoe of Halifax both picked up the gold they needed to become Life Masters.

Together with Barb Landry, who became a Life Master

Arthur Donahoe and Wade Short, Life Masters

on Thursday, Wade and Art bring to three the total the number of Doug Hamilton's team-mates who have achieved that goal this week. Clearly, Doug is either a lucky charm or a hell of a player.

Remembering Beryl (Callaghan) MacLean

Twenty-five friends and family got together Saturday morning to remember Beryl. In the hospitality Suite, generously provided by the Can-At, Beryl's children, Leslie and Danny, and friends from as far away as Vermont, New Hampshire, Newfoundland, PEI and all parts of Nova Scotia got to hear amusing stories about or involving Beryl, which told a lot about Beryl's character. Everyone learned something new about this wonderful person.

There were also displays of photographs with Beryl, some going back more than 30 years, as well as copies of the programme from the Charlottetown funeral service.

Everyone there enjoyed coffee and sweets, and the event ended with Gerry Callaghan proposing a toast to Beryl. Joanne Coffey, who was one of Beryl's three non-bridge and disabled friends there, transmitted (by phone) the toast to a group of ten of Beryl's friends at Merchantman Pub in Charlottetown (and another friend in Montreal) who were toasting Beryl at the same time. We think that Beryl would have enjoyed this event!

Since losing their first two matches in the Thursday Bracketed KO's, Mike Cappelletti

CAPPELETTI CRUISING

-Helen & George Colter, Barb MacKay- have won every match since, going into Saturday evening's KO final. Tournament co-chair, Gerry Callaghan was a fill in for a late arriving Cappelletti on Day 1 and was largely responsible for their early demise.

The team politely refused Gerry's offer of assistance in any of the remaining events.

Many of you are familiar with and/or playing his convention over opponents NT auctions .Kathie MacNab has Mike booked as the guest speaker Sunday at 6: 45 and Gerry for Wednesday at the same time.

Arthur Lillys' squad has qualified for three consecutive one session Swiss events. For those of you not familiar with how this is accomplished, try losing all six of the Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon Bracketed KO Matches. Flash Gordon has crowned Arthur king of a new event-the one session Bracketed KO's. Arthur has the word out that he is looking to replace his entire team. Teammates – Kay, Ray and Rod--are reportedly running out of aspirin.
